10 March 2020

To all Members

Dear Members and Friends

Postponement of IESF Meeting - Tuesday 17 March 2020 at the RAF Club.

In view of the ongoing concerns expressed widely about the spread of Coronavirus (COVID 19) and the growing number of cancellations or postponement of planned events in London and elsewhere, it has been decided reluctantly that the IESF lecture/dinner meeting scheduled for Tuesday, 17th March at the RAF Club should be postponed.

This decision has been taken in the best interests of members and made only following extensive consultation. I am advised that other, similar organisations are taking a similar course of action.

Our Treasurer, Melvyn Grant has confirmed that members who have booked and paid for the dinner already will be entitled to a refund.

We will continue to monitor the national situation, as it evolves and keep members informed about the future programme of meetings and events over the spring, as information and advice becomes available.

Kind regards

John Beck
